¹ Persons who are to have individual right of representation must be marked with an "I"; those who are to have joint right of representation with another person specified below are to be marked with a "J". If someone is only to have right of representation jointly with a particular other person, the number under which that person is listed in this form must be indicated in addition to the letter "J" (e.g. "J" with no. 1). ² See under II.

II. Limitation of the power of attorney vis-à-vis the Bank in the case of joint right of representation in accordance with the articles³

If, in accordance with the Commercial Register/Register of Cooperative Societies or Register of non-trading Partnerships, all legal representatives (personally liable partner of a general partnership, limited partnership or non-trading partnership, management board of a public limited company, managing director of a private limited company, management board of a cooperative) of the account holder have joint right of representation, individual right of representation vis-à-vis the Bank granted on this specimen signatures sheet⁴ shall be limited to transactions directly relating to the management of the account(s)/safe custody account(s).

These shall include in particular:

- disposing of account balances (e.g. by credit transfer order, cash withdrawal, cheque)
- drawing on loans granted (including instructions to provide a guarantee, utilisation of existing overdraft facilities and presentation of bills of exchange for discounting)
- buying and selling securities and foreign exchange and requesting delivery of these
- accepting and acknowledging periodic balance statements, statements of account, securities, safe custody and income statements plus other statements and advices
- issuing collection orders

For legal reasons, individual right of representation for all business transactions can only be granted vis-à-vis the Bank for partnerships and corporations where the partnership agreement or the articles provide for individual right of representation for legal representatives.

The account holder must notify the Bank immediately and – for proof-related reasons – if possible in writing of the extinction or amendment of any right of representation advised to the Bank. This notification requirement shall also exist where the right of representation has been recorded in a public register (e.g. Commercial Register) and its extinction or amendment is entered in this register.
