Regulation

Danske Bank A/S is authorised and regulated by the Danish Financial Services Authority (Finanstilsynet). Danske Bank A/S is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority in the UK and subject to regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority and limited regulation by the Prudential Regulation Authority. Details about the extent of our regulation by the Prudential Regulation Authority are available from us on request.

Danske Bank's research reports are prepared in accordance with the recommendations of Capital Market Denmark.

Conflicts of interest

Danske Bank A/S has established procedures to prevent conflicts of interest and to ensure the provision of high-quality research based on research objectivity and independence. These procedures are documented in Danske Bank's research policies. Employees within Danske Bank's Research Departments have been instructed that any request that might impair the objectivity and independence of research shall be referred to Research Management and the Compliance Department. Danske Bank's Research Departments are physically separated from other business areas within Danske Bank A/S and surrounded by arrangements (Information Barriers) to restrict the flow of sensitive information.

Research analysts are remunerated in part based on the overall profitability of Danske Bank A/S, which includes investment banking revenues, but do not receive bonuses or other remuneration linked to specific corporate finance or equity/debt capital transactions.

Danske Bank A/S, its affiliates, subsidiaries and staff may perform services for or solicit business on behalf of Danske Bank A/S and may hold long or short positions in, or otherwise be interested in, the financial instruments mentioned in this research report. The analyst of Equity Research and persons in other departments of Danske Bank A/S with which the relevant analysts have close links are not permitted to invest in 1) financial instruments that are covered by the relevant Equity Research analyst and 2) the research sector within the geographical area (the Nordics) to which the Equity Research analyst is linked.

Danske Bank A/S, its affiliates and subsidiaries are engaged in commercial banking, securities underwriting, dealing, trading, brokerage, investment management, investment banking, custody and other financial activities and have whatever rights as are available to a creditor or debtor under applicable law and the applicable loan and credit agreements. At any time, Danske Bank A/S' affiliates, subsidiaries, departments and staff members may have credit or other information regarding Danske Bank A/S that is not available to or may not be used by the personnel responsible for the preparation of this report, which might affect the analysis and opinions expressed in this research report.

[Individual company disclosures added here]

Danske Bank A/S is a market maker and a liquidity provider and may hold positions in the financial instruments of the issuer(s) mentioned in this research report.

No parts of this research report, no opinions or recommendations have been disclosed to other business departments or staff members outside Equity Research within Danske Bank A/S except for the Compliance Department, and no amendments have accordingly been made to the same before dissemination of the research report.

Financial models and/or methodology used in this research report

Recommendations and opinions in this research report are formed on the basis of a combined selection of discounted cash flow analysis, industry knowledge, peer group analysis and company-specific and market technical elements (events affecting both the financial and operational profile of the company). Forecasting of company sales and earnings is based on segmented bottom-up models using subjective views of relevant future market developments. In addition, the expected macroeconomic environment is taken into account. The output is aggregated into models for group profit and loss, balance sheets and cash flow estimates – all taking into account the recent development in historical research reports.

More information about the valuation and/or methodology and the underlying assumptions is accessible via www.danskebank.com/equityresearch.

Risk warning

Major risks connected with recommendations or opinions in this research report, including a sensitivity analysis of relevant assumptions, are stated throughout the text.

Expected updates

This research product will be updated on a semi-annual basis as a minimum.

Completion and first dissemination

The completion date and time in this research report mean the date and time when the author hands over the final version of the research report to Danske Bank's editing function for legal review and editing.

The date and time of first dissemination mean the date and estimated time of the first dissemination of this research report. The estimated time may deviate up to 15 minutes from the effective dissemination time due to technical limitations.

See the back page of this research report for the date and time of first dissemination.

Recommendation structure

The Danske Bank Equity Research recommendation system is absolute. It means that each stock is rated on the basis of a total return, measured by the upside potential (including dividends and capital reimbursement) over a 12-month time horizon.

The Danske Bank Equity Research spectrum of recommendations (or ratings) for each stock comprises three categories: Buy, Hold, Sell (in short B, H, S). In specific cases and for a limited period of time, analysts may have to rate stocks as Rating Suspended (RS) or Not Rated (NR), as explained below.

Meaning of each rating or recommendation

Buy: we expect the stock to generate a total return of more than 10% over the next 12 months.

Hold: we expect the stock to generate a total return of 0% to 10% over the next 12 months.

Sell: we expect the stock to generate a total return below 0% over the next 12 months.

Rating Suspended: the rating is suspended due to a capital operation (e.g. takeover bid, share issue) where the issuer or a related party of the issuer is or could be involved or to a change of analyst covering the stock.

Not Rated:

- Danske Bank Equity Research produces investment research on Danske Bank but does not have an investment recommendation to buy, hold or sell or any target price on the stock.
- Danske Bank Equity Research has removed the rating for this security due to there being insufficient fundamental basis on which to assess the stock's total return.
- Danske Bank Equity Research has terminated coverage on a company.

Note: Percentages do not take into account Commissioned Research and not rated stocks within the coverage universe

Validity time period

This communication as well as previous communications referred to below are valid until the earlier of (a) dissemination of a superseding communication by the author, or (b) significant changes in circumstances following its dissemination, including events relating to the market or the issuer, which can influence the price of the issuer or financial instrument.
